

El Paso Convention & Visitors Bureau
El Paso Convention & Performing Arts Center

The EPA's River Navigator for the Rio Grande present to you the web page of the meeting site "El Paso Convention Center" for the Biannual "American Heritage Rivers Initiative" Meeting to be held in El Paso Texas, 3-4 November 2003. The El Paso Convention Center offers a variety of affordable and deluxe accommodations ready to serve you. Many of the properties also offer competitive rates and high quality, friend service. Many of the properties also offer shuttle service to the airport and the surrounding areas for your convenience.

Our Sun City El Paso is a unique and beautiful part of west Texas, and it is our pleasure to share with you, the beauty and culture of El Paso and our sister city of Ciudad Juarez, which is across the border en Mexico. El Paso offers many attractions that will appeal to the historical, artistic, creative, and ecological sensibilities of our visitors-not to mention their culinary taste. You will also find information about some of the many attractions, museums, and delicious Mexican restaurants at El Paso Convention Center service.

Please review the information at <http://www.elpasocvb.com/>, and do not hesitate to call us for further assistance to you. You can call Adele Cardenas EPA's Rio Grande River Navigator (214) 665-7210 or Beatriz Vera Rio Grande/Rio Bravo Basin Coalition (915) 532-0399. El Paso Convention Center would love to show you their facilities and our city, and look forward to speaking with you soon. Thank you again for you interest.

Meeting Site Address:

El Paso Convention & Visitors Bureau
El Paso Convention & Performing Arts Center

One Civic Center Plaza
El Paso, TX 79901
(915) 534-0601 local
(800) 351-6024 toll free
(915) 534-0687 fax
info@elpasocvb.com e-mail

Meeting Site Map at <http://www.elpasocvb.com/map.sstg>